

University of Tennessee System Administration (UTSA)

UTSA charges the campuses and institutes for administrative support and services provided. This charge represents system's costs in excess of appropriations, interest, and other revenue sources. The charge is based on a three year average of total unrestricted and restricted educational and general (E&G) and auxiliary current fund expenditures for each campus and institute.